Doris dear -

I am leaving this evening for Geneva, and Monday morning I am returning from their home.

I was staying here two days, saw some people and bought a lot of books on Indian religion and philosophy, but I couldn't find a single book I was looking for.

Try Lucas, Selby, Blackwell (Oxford) and Macfarr
(Cambridge) for the complete series of "The Sacred Books of the East"
(50 vols). If you cannot find the whole lot try to get me the following volumes, all of them or any:

- 1) Dialogues of the Buddha, by Rhys-Davids, 3 Vols.
- 2) Further Dialogues of the Buddha, by Chamberlain, 2 vols.
- 3) Gatakamala, ed. Sura.
- 4) Saundharā-Pundarikā by H. Kern.
- 5) Mahayana Texts, by Cowell.
- 6) Questions of King Milinda, by Rhys-Davids, 2 vols.
- 7) Buddhist Suttas, by Rhys-Davids.
- 8) Upanishads by F. M. Müller, 2 vols.
- 9) Vedānta Sūtras, by Theodor Goldsticker, 3 vols.

(all Oxford Press, Sacred Books of the East)
